

Children's Aid Summer Camps 2021

Our Summer camp locations host a variety of programs. They typically run in July and August, Monday through Friday, from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Please reach out to the individual location to learn more about their offerings. Camp schedules vary from site to site.

Please contact each center or school for registration and program specifics.

Home Camp	Summer Rising	Wagon Road Camp
A center-based program that provides academic and enrichment activities for children in the community. Grades K-5 (*grades 6-8 where funding is available). Available at: Goodhue, Frederick Douglass, and Milbank Centers. Please call the center or school directly for more information on availability.	The Department of Education and DYCD are offering a free summer program for NYC students grades K-8. Summer Rising participants are part of a program model that combines both summer school and summer camp. Available at all school-based sites. Please call the school directly for more information on availability &amp; to confirm program location. Some school sites may relocate for the summer.	A country camp located in Chappaqua, NY. Children are bused to and from the camp every day from select Children's Aid locations in Manhattan and the Bronx: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Whitney Young Jr. - CS 211</li> <li>• Dunlevy Milbank Center</li> <li>• East Harlem Center @ P.S. 72 - Lexington Academy</li> <li>• Central Park East II</li> </ul> Please call the locations directly for more information on busing and registration.
